

PRESS RELEASE

27th January 2016

GM Ben Copeman moves on from NASAA

The Board of NASAA wishes to announce that Ben Copeman's term as GM of NASAA is ending, and that Ben has decided to explore other opportunities outside of NASAA.

Jan Denham, NASAA Chair said, 'With an experienced team in place we expect that it will be business as usual until the process of appointing a new GM is completed.'

NCO Manager, Sachin Ayachit will continue to head up the certification business.

'Sachin has established a highly professional and responsive certification and inspection process and operators can be assured that NCO will continue to be fully focussed on providing the best service possible,' Ms Denham said.

'The Board of NASAA looks forward to an exciting and positive future, and continuing to assist Australia's certified organic industry in capitalising on the many opportunities ahead.'

Ms Denham said that the Board wishes to thank Ben for his contribution to NASAA over the past three years and wishes him all the very best in his new ventures.
